

ABRIL

LEVI

P O R T F O L I O

A black and white photograph capturing a close-up of a person's lower body and hands. The person is in a dynamic, acrobatic pose, with their legs spread wide and their hands planted firmly on a light-colored floor. The lighting is dramatic, casting long, dark shadows that emphasize the contours of the limbs. The word "ACROBAT" is superimposed in a large, bold, black, sans-serif font across the middle of the image, partially overlapping the legs and hands. The overall composition is minimalist and focuses on the form and movement of the body.

ACROBAT

My name is Abril Leandri. I am from Argentina and grew up between southern Spain and Ibiza.

I began exploring pole dance at the age of 18, after training in rhythmic gymnastics and contemporary dance throughout my childhood. These disciplines gave me the flexibility, strength and coordination that I have continued to develop through pole training.

Since taking up pole dance, I have trained for an average of six hours a day. For the first five years, I was self-taught, driven by discipline and dedication.

After reaching an intermediate level on my own, I began taking formal training courses. I studied a distinctive approach based on muscle oxygenation and targeted physical conditioning: the Chinese Pole method.

Around that time, I also completed an advanced qualification that enabled me to teach and train others. Today, I run my own pole and aerial arts studio.

Alongside pole, I practise dance, flexibility training and aerial arts.

For several consecutive years, I was selected to compete in national and international pole sport and exotic hard competitions, achieving a podium finish in every one.

Today, I perform at venues across Ibiza, including aerial acts at UNVRS and aerial and contortion performances at Cova Santa. I also lead workshops and teach both online and in person.

I have also worked as a choreographer for dance performances and shows at various events in Ibiza.

The next step in my career?

To join a performing arts company where I can develop my artistic abilities, refine my skills, keep learning and enjoy doing what I love most.

THANK YOU

